

My Self - Essay

My name is Peter Adade Yao, and I am a 21 year old student. I was born in Tamale and was raised in Accra-Ghana, where I grew up with my family. I consider myself to be a kind, responsible, and curious individual, always eager to learn new things and explore different aspects of life.

Educational Background

I started schooling in MATS Daycare and went to 5 Garrison Kindergaten. I later attended Wajir Barracks "B" primary and JHS. After basic School, I attended St Thomas Aquinas SHS were I did General Arts as a course. During my three years of SHS, I developed an Interest in ICT so I decided to pursue a Programme in Information Technology in the University which I am currently doing in The University Of Professional Studies Accra. I am currently in Level 200.

In my free time, I enjoy trying my hands on codes and watching movies, and I am also passionate about the game of Basketball which I actually played in My senior high school team. I believe that maintaining a balance between hard work and relaxation is important for personal growth and happiness.

As for my goals, I strive to be a Big time WEb developer for well known Organisations, and I work hard every day to achieve them. I am always looking for ways to improve myself, both academically and personally. My family and friends are very important to me, and they inspire me to keep pushing forward and reach my full potential.

In conclusion, I am a person who values hard work, kindness, and self-improvement. I believe that life is a journey full of opportunities, and I am excited to continue learning, growing, and contributing to the world around me.
